When do Independent Seniors Benefit from Assisted Living?

Home with Heart and Health

Villa Assisted Living is a social setting that makes it easy to connect with new friends over breakfast or lunch.

Villa promotes easy indoor walks from apartments to dining and activities that help residents stay physically active, in a safe environment.

Villa provides planned activities that include mental stimulation, social engagement, physical exercise and education.

Villa provides private apartments that are comfortable places for some quiet time of rest and relaxation.

Villa staff plan menus, shop for food, cook your meals and clean the dishes.

Villa staff clean your bathrooms, vacuum your carpets, scrub your kitchenette, do your laundry and take out the trash.

Villa staff will handle all the home repairs and yard work.

Villa provides reminders to help residents get the full benefit of their medications and avoid the risks of forgetting or doubling-up.

Villa staff can help you remember your doctor's appointments and take you there.

Villa staff can help you safely take a shower, get dressed and get ready to enjoy the day.

Villa staff keep a gentle eye out for your safety and wellbeing, giving peace of mind to your family.
